Autumn Manœuvres

A comedy by Peter Coke

at the

Burton Joyce & Bulcote Village Hall

on

Saturday

26th April 1997

at 7.45pm

ALL SEATS £3.00

(Senior citizens £2.50 Thursday only)

This eagerly awaited sequel to "Breath of Spring" which we performed 16 years ago, sees Dame Beatrice and her lodgers Nan, Hattie and the Brigadier - although well into the autumn of their lives, spurred on by the plight of their equally autumnal but homeless friends, to embark on a series of 'operations' to acquire funds to purchase a flat. Their well - planned manœuvres involving Kidnapped Dogs, The Royal Yacht, Pop Stars and Arab Ladies succeed so well that they are well on their way to obtaining their flat.

TIME: The Present

ACT 1 Scene 1 Morning
 Scene 2 A month later (noon)

ACT 2 2 months later (afternoon)

The action takes place in the drawing room of Dame Beatrice's flat.
