The Burton Joyce Players

We will be very pleased to hear from anybody interested in joining the Players. Whether your interest is on stage, back stage or front of house, you are assured of a warm welcome.

The Burton Joyce Players wish to thank the ladies of the Drug & Wholefood Store for undertaking the bookings; also to those who have loaned properties or assisted in any way.

The next production is our Pantomime "Little Miss Muffet" on January 24th-27th January 1990.

THE ACCRINGTON PALS

Peter Whelan's anti war play is based on fact in that Accrington was the smallest town to raise its own battalion during the great war. The battalion (Pals) was subsequently decimated at the battle of the Somme in 1916.

Peter Whelan was born in the Potteries in 1931 and made a career in advertising, before writing for the stage.
