

We wish to thank Mrs. Ford of the Drug and Wholefood Store for once again undertaking the bookings. Our thanks are also extended to all those who have loaned properties and costumes and given of their time to help backstage and with refreshments.

New members are always welcome. You don't have to act, please come along and just join in! The Players meet on the third Friday of each month. Our secretary, Mrs. Mary Bringham (Burton Joyce 2399) will be pleased to deal with your enquiries.

Synopsis

A thriller writer indulges in vitriolic word duels with his estranged wife until she turns a gun on him and fires. An amateur detective from the next flat attempts to solve the murder puzzle before calling the police, by questioning the writer's secretary, publisher and widow, all of whom reveal previously unknown involvements with each other. The plot unfolds with a series of macabre and exciting twists!
